It is a celebrated belief among people that "Marriages are made in heaven" and when a couple comes together what follows is a harmonious bond of love and relationships. But what will happen when a man is forced to marry a girl? How does the relationship bloom when only one partner truly loves the other while the he cares nothing for her? Such is the story of Kakul's life when she marries the man she loves and trusts. Ghar... Ek Sapnaa is a show that traces Kakul's married life in a new house and a new city after her sudden marriage to Samman.

Ghar... Ek Sapnaa is Kakul's story - the daughter of a very powerful political and business figure of Bihar - Om Shankar. She lives with her father along with Trisha – her elder sister and her brother-in-law Sujit. Kakul is beautiful, vivacious and innocent, and instantly gets noticed by people. Even at her best friend Reena's wedding, Kakul is all over the ceremonies and Samman, the bridegroom's friend, cannot take his eyes off her. Even though Samman is in a committed relationship with Vanshika, he takes up a bet with his friends to flirt with Kakul and win her over. Unaware of the territory that he has treaded on, Samman promises undying love to Kakul who in turn falls in love with him almost immediately. Although Samman wants to break free from this situation, he is forced to marry Kakul and takes her home with him.

What factors force Samman to marry Kakul?
Will Samman's family accept Kakul as his bride?
How does Vanshika react to Samman's wedding?
Will Kakul win Samman's love and acceptance?
Will her dream of a complete family ever come true?
